

If you let these smaller band stations take over some of the larger FM stations you will be taking away the only way myself and my children listen to the radio. We listen to Christian radio station such as K-love and WAKW in Cincinnati. If these stations are removed my equal rights will be in jeopardy. Please do not let the smaller bands take over.